CTCL COVID-19 Response grant funds that you're most proud of?

The CTCL grant has allowed the Fulton County Elections Department to extend the mail ballot program to meet the unprecedented demands for the November 2020 General & Special Elections.
The mail ballot program, which has historically

If your annual budget for elections permanently doubled, what would you be able to accomplish that you can't accomplish now?

We could expand the space where we work in order to make our department more efficient.
Our operations could be consolidated to one space. It could be designed to streamline operations in terms of absentee by mail from

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic during a presidential election year, many election offices forged new partnerships with community organizations and nonprofits to help recruit more election workers, identify new voting locations, source personal protective equipment, educate voters, and more. Did your election office develop or deepen any new partnerships in 2020? What was your experience? Do you plan to maintain those new partnerships? Why or why not?

We forged new partnerships with Vote-at-Home, Elections Group and US Digital Response. Vote-
at-Home provided their expertise through on site and remote consulting pertaining to ballot by mail processing. They helped us with planning for Many of you asked to share photos of how you spent the grant funds. While this is completely optional, we welcome any photos (or other documents) you'd like to send our way!

We love anecdotes, links to news articles about your grant spending, ideas for future CTCL programs, hearing what you love/hate about your job, etc. — anything else you want to tell us!

Once a month, we send out a newsletter called ELECTricity, which helps election officials stay current with election administration stories, technology, and best practices. We also send periodic updates about CTCL's trainings, resources, and tools. Would you like to receive this newsletter?

☑ Yes, I'd like to receive CTCL's newsletter.

Thank You!

From everyone here at CTCL, THANK YOU! Your incredible work running elections during a global pandemic does not go unrecognized. We're deeply grateful for your public service, and honored that we could provide some support.

Free Self-Paced Cybersecurity Training

Now that the new year is here, it's a great time to take training courses to prepare for the next election cycle. We invite you to take our training series, Cybersecurity for Election Officials, which is available for free through a partnership with the U.S. Election Assistance Commission. This three-part series is completely online and self-paced, so you can tune in at any time that's convenient for you.
